How to manage your membership

Your Portal

As a student you will have become familiar with the Portal, where you managed exam bookings etc. The Portal remains the central place for you to manage your membership too.

Each year we will send you a notice for renewal in November by email. This will be a call to action for you to log in to the Portal and pay your subscription for the year ahead and submit your Annual Return for the previous year. Annual Subscriptions and Annual Returns are due by 31 January each year. You can submit and pay online through the Portal. Invoices marked paid are sent automatically to members by email and these can be used (where agreed) to expense the cost of your membership back to your employer.

Your Membership Benefits

This is a snapshot of the member benefits you can access:

- Free or low-cost seminars, webinars, meetings, and discussion groups, including discounted rates at our Annual Conferences
- Copies of Tolley's Tax Guide; Whillan's Tax Tables and the Annotated Finance Act year on year (as applicable)
- Tax Rate Cards – members can apply for up to 50 copies of a branded tax rate card for use in their offices or with clients
- A weekly technical e-newsletter
- Discounts on publications from our partnered publishers

ATT Annual Conferences

- Three opportunities a year to increase your knowledge and enhance your skills in the tax profession
- Network and share feedback and ideas with like-minded professionals
- A valuable source of Continuing Professional Development (CPD).

The conferences concentrate on topical issues with an emphasis on the practical issues faced on a daily basis by Taxation Technicians.

Our knowledgeable speakers illustrate their lectures with practical examples gained from their experience in practice. The conferences also give you an ideal opportunity to network with like-minded professionals.

In addition, ATT in partnership with AAT offers a Sharpen Your Tax Skills workshop series in late Autumn.

Further Information

The ATT Annual Conferences take place between June and July and the joint AAT/ATT Sharpen Your Tax Skills workshops take place in November.

Engaging with your tax community by region

Branch Network

A Joint Network with the Chartered Institute of Taxation brings the profession together as a community via peer-to-peer learning and networking.

The Branch Network community is made up of a friendly volunteer group of ATT and CIOT members from your area, who will deliver an annual programme of events tailored to local members and students.

- Branch events include professional skills training, and other social events
- Free or low-cost seminars, webinars, meetings, and discussion groups
- The chance to develop your technical expertise and obtain Continuing Professional Development (CPD) hours
- Valuable networking opportunities with likeminded professionals and a chance to practice your networking skills
- Personal development including building and maintaining your professional status.

Join Your Community

When you applied to study ATT you were invited to select a Branch, now, as a member you can enrol onto more branches, perhaps one local to home or work or both. Branch events are an opportunity for training and development but, more than that, they are also a great way to meet other tax professionals working in your area.

Get Involved

The ATT wants to support members wherever they are, if you do not currently have an active branch in your area but you are interested in finding out more about what events and activities might be happening in your region or online, please contact: branches@tax.org.uk.

Access Branch Webinars

Our CPD is accessible and inclusive, therefore, if you prefer to obtain content online, we offer an online programme of technical webinars and professional skills available at:

www.att.org.uk/branch-webinars

In 2022, the Branch Network delivered 87 events, 22 of these were in-person events in the UK and Channel Islands attracting over 1,000 delegates.

Find an ATT

Taxation Technician Directory

- Appear in ATT's Taxation Technician Directory, a searchable list of our members.
- Use the Find an ATT platform to promote your expertise and enable clients to get in touch.

Find an ATT is the most-accessible way for prospective clients to find and contact Taxation Technicians in their local area.

The find an ATT platform allows clients to search for an ATT member via their town, post code, tax specialism or surname. The service is free of charge to both members and users.

Volunteer with ATT

If you want to help to shape the future of the Association and the tax profession, then volunteering is a real way to make a difference.

ATT's Council, Steering Groups and Committees and the branch network are all run by members, volunteers who offer their time and expertise to provide essential direction, leadership, guidance and support to the Association.

Volunteering is also a great way to enhance and develop new skills, gain valuable experience and make a contribution to the wider profession. Watch our video to find out more: www.youtube.com/watch?v=NApsEad3bqI&t=14s

ATT Technical

- The technical area of your website includes information on consultations, submissions and HMRC publications
- There is a dedicated website area on the latest development of MTD
- Find out how ATT represents your views on technical issues.

The Technical section of the ATT website presents information from the Association's Technical Steering Group.

The Technical Steering Group provides a structure through which the general problems with compliance and administration faced on a day-to-day basis by ATT members can be considered and appropriate action taken. The Association can take on queries which bring to light anomalies or problems with tax law or administration.

Much of our technical work consists of meetings with HM Treasury and HM Revenue & Customs, to help ensure that the viewpoint of the taxpayer and tax practitioners is taken into account in the development of HMRC's policy and practise.

High Professional Standards and AML Supervision

The ATT requires members to adhere to high Professional Standards which protect the member, their clients and other third parties. Our standards are one of the reasons our members are held in high regard by HMRC and other bodies. The ATT is also a professional body AML supervisor.

All of our Professional Standards requirements and guidance are available via the websites and the main areas to refer to are:

Professional Conduct in Relation to Taxation (PCRT)

This sets out the principles and standards of behaviour that all members and students must follow in their tax work. The PCRT is written by ATT and CIOT and five other leading UK tax and accountancy bodies. It sets out the ethical code for the tripartite relationship between the adviser, the client and the tax authorities; and is recognised by the courts and HMRC as setting the standard for the behaviour expected as a tax adviser.

Find out more at:

www.att.org.uk/professional-standards/professional-conduct-relation-taxation

Professional Rules and Practice Guidelines (PRPG)

This sets out the requirements for tax advisers working in practice, commerce or industry. It contains the fundamental principles and rules, together with related guidance, which members must comply with and which help members handle challenges encountered in their professional work.

Find out more at:

www.att.org.uk/professional-standards/professional-rules-and-practice-guidelines

AML Supervision

This area of the website includes details of how to register for supervision and provides considerable support and help to meet the requirements of the legislation.
